Baseball NL Launches "Step Up to the Plate" Initiative to Boost Registration and Enhance Participation Province-wide

Baseball NL is thrilled to announce the launch of its new initiative, "Step Up to the Plate," aimed at fostering increased participation in baseball across Newfoundland and Labrador. The program encompasses a multifaceted approach to encourage participation, provide valuable resources, and promote inclusivity within the baseball community.

"Step Up to the Plate" serves as a comprehensive platform offering a range of resources and support mechanisms to empower individuals and communities to engage with the sport of baseball. The initiative encompasses the following key components: registration information, information for communities new to baseball, personal testimonials, tournament listings, Challenger Baseball information, Girls Baseball information and Financial Support Program information.

Through "Step Up to the Plate," Baseball NL aims to create a welcoming and inclusive environment where individuals of all ages, backgrounds, and abilities can come together to enjoy the game of baseball. By providing valuable resources, promoting diversity, and removing financial barriers, this initiative seeks to enhance participation and foster a vibrant baseball community throughout Newfoundland and Labrador.

"Baseball NL is dedicated to making baseball accessible to all and ensuring that everyone has the opportunity to experience the joys of the sport," said Kristyn Coley, Minor Committee Chair for Baseball NL. "We are excited to launch 'Step Up to the Plate' and look forward to seeing the positive impact it will have on communities across the province."

"Through the Step Up to the Plate Initiative, we're building positive relationships, fostering community, and igniting a passion for baseball across Newfoundland and Labrador like never before." - Darren Hancock, President of Baseball NL
